

The 1st Ocean Yachts Cup was successfully realized with final destination the island of Poros.

The only Greek, luxurious, sailing yachts shipbuilding company, Ocean Yachts, organized the 1st Ocean Yachts Cup 2005, on Saturday the 23rd of April, with final destination the island of Poros.

In total, 21 beautiful, luxurious Ocean Star yachts started their journey from the Alimos Dock and with the favorable wind, arrived early in the evening at Poros. A beautiful experience awaited everyone there. The prizes were awarded in the Poros Image Hotel and a party full of surprises followed. The Ocean Yachts Cup 2005 was completed in the best possible way. Both Ocean Yachts and the participants renewed their appointment for next year's race.

The first prize was awarded to Ocean Star 56.1 "President" yacht with Mr. Aristotle Karamaroudis as the captain. The National Bank with its Gold MasterCard was the Gold Sponsor of the 1st Ocean Yachts Cup 2005.

Mr. Constantine Anargyrou, Ocean Yachts' President, stated: "I am really proud of the successful organization of our first Regatta and I hope it will be an unforgettable experience for everyone. I want to congratulate all participants and promise that Ocean Yachts Cup will become a tradition. I would also like to thank the National Bank for supporting us in our first Regatta".
