

Ocean Yachts in Exclusive Yachting 2007

Ocean Yachts' Ocean Star 51.2 yacht participates once again in the Exclusive Yachting Exhibition that will take place on September 20-24 at Aghios Kosmas, Athens

The Ocean Star 51.2 yacht will represent Ocean Yachts in the Exclusive Yachting 2007 Exhibition that is considered a tradition for both the company and the sailing lovers from all around the world. The hand-made Ocean Star yachts meet the strictest specifications and sail into challenging seas, offering at the same time trustworthiness, comfort and impressive design.

During the exhibition, the visitors will have the chance to get informed on the company's plans and its yachts, among which is the new Ocean Pearl 62.1 that is exclusively designed by the famous British yachts' designer, Mr. Bill Dixon.

Mr. Anargirou, Ocean Yachts' CEO, stated: «Ocean Yachts could not miss this significant exhibition. I am certain that for one more year, our sailing friends will honor us with a visit. The recognition of Ocean Yachts' hand-made sailing yachts among its private owners in Greece and in Europe makes us all proud».

The yachts are manufactured –and tested– to sail all around the world. Their extraordinary performance, their security and their timeless design, both internally and externally, have turned the yachts manufactured by Ocean Yachts to reference points.
