

The unique Greek hand-made yachts of Ocean Yachts at the 28th International Boat Show of Athens

The successful year will be completed with Ocean Yachts' participation in the international exhibition.

Athens, 9th November 2006 - Ocean Yachts, the only Greek manufacturer of luxurious hand – made sailing yachts, will take part for one more year, in the 28th International Boat Show of Athens that will take place at the Elliniko Exhibition Centre from the 11th to the 19th of November 2006.

The visitors will have the opportunity to admire the popular Ocean Star yachts, the unique hand-made sailing yachts. In addition, the participants will be able to get informed on the manufacture of the new Ocean Pearl 62.1 ft., the result of the collaboration of Ocean Yachts and the famous yachts designer, Mr. Bill Dixon, that will be added to the Ocean Yachts' fleet in 2007.

Mr. Constantine Anargyrou, Ocean Yachts' President, stated: «We are successfully completing our presence this year to the most important international exhibitions, by participating in the 28th Boat Show of Athens. This has been a transitory year for Ocean Yachts due to its collaboration with Bill Dixon for the new Ocean Pearl 62.1 ft., the direction of sales towards mainly foreign countries, as well as the network expansion with new representations in the European market. We will faithfully continue our extrovert direction as we strongly believe that the European expansion is for Ocean Yachts, as for any successful Greek company, the only path».

With excellent quality and competitive prices, Ocean Yachts appeals to all sailing lovers, nationally and internationally.
