

Ocean Yachts' impressive participations in Exclusive Yachting 2006 and the Boat Shows of Southampton and the Netherlands

Athens, 16th October 2006 - Ocean Yachts, the only Greek shipbuilding company of handmade luxurious sailing yachts, dynamically participated in three of the most significant exhibitions that took place in September, in Greece and abroad. Its yachts charmed the visitors and the yachting fans, attracting mainly those with increased demands.

Exclusive Yachting 2006, Athens 21-24 September 2006

The thousands of yachting friends that visited this year's exhibition at the dock of Aghios Kosmas had the opportunity to admire closely the unique, hand-made yachts of Ocean Yachts. At the company's stand, the visitors were informed by the Ocean Yacht's executives on the design of the new, special Ocean Pearl 62.1 ft.- result of the collaboration with the famous yachts designer, Mr. Bill Dixon – that will be added to the Ocean Yacht's fleet in September 2007.

Southampton Boat Show, United Kingdom 15 - 24 September 2006

The Ocean Yachts participation attracted the admiration of the Southampton Boat Show visitors for one more year. The yachting friends showed increased interest for the high quality and competitive priced yachts. The company presented its new Ocean Pearl series as well as the already manufactured 51.2 and 56.1ft yachts. The visitors had the chance to exchange views with the company's representative, as well with executives from Greece. A significant number of visitors expressed their interest for test sails.

«Hiswa Te Water» Boat Show, the Netherlands 5 - 10 September 2006

Ocean Yachts dynamically participated in the «Hiswa Te Water» Boat Show, with an Ocean Star 51.2 ft Owners Version yacht, whose manufacture was completed just one month earlier, attracting once again the attention of foreign visitors mainly due to the quality, the operational design and the worth of a very efficient Greek sailing yacht that was presented for the first time in the specific show. In this way, the collaboration among Ocean Yachts and the local representative started, in a country whose sailing tradition and accomplishments are well known.

Mr. Constantine Anargyrou, Ocean Yachts' President, stated: «We are proud for our dynamic participations this year to significant yachting exhibitions, both in Greece and abroad. We are a Greek company that promotes with passion to the Greek and foreign markets hand-made yachts that are manufactured with the aim of providing excellent quality, comfort, endurance and safety, with very competitive prices, to the yachting friends. We will continue our efforts and we believe that our course in Greece and abroad will be that of progress».
